INSTRUCTIONS

HomeReady™ Non-Borrower Household Income Worksheet and Certification (Fannie Mae Form 1019)

Lenders may use this form to document the non-borrower household income used as a compensating factor on a HomeReady mortgage loan.

Copies

Original only.

Printing Instructions

This form must be printed on letter size paper, using portrait format.

Instructions

Under Borrower/Property Information, enter the names of all borrowers on the loan application, the subject property address, and the lender's loan number.

Under Non-Borrower Household Income and Certification, enter the full name of the non-borrower household member whose income is being used as a compensating factor. Then enter the source(s) of this income and the verified monthly amount(s).

The household member must sign this document to certify that he or she intends to occupy the subject property for a minimum of 12 months, and has provided the required documentation.

Note:

If there are multiple non-borrower household members associated with the transaction, each non-borrower household member's information should be documented on a separate form.

The total income for all non-borrower household members that is being used as a compensating factor should be entered into Desktop Underwriter®.

A signed and fully-executed copy of this form (or another document with equivalent information) must be retained in the mortgage file.
